

Urban Wood Rescue

A Case Study

Celebrating the Uniqueness & Utilization of California Urban Woods
'From Urban Forest to Final Form'

California Urban Forest Council

April 3, 2015

Palomar College, San Marcos, CA

Ray Tretheway

Executive Director

Sacramento Tree Foundation

Mission: Growing healthy, livable communities in the Sacramento region by building the best urban forest

Benefits

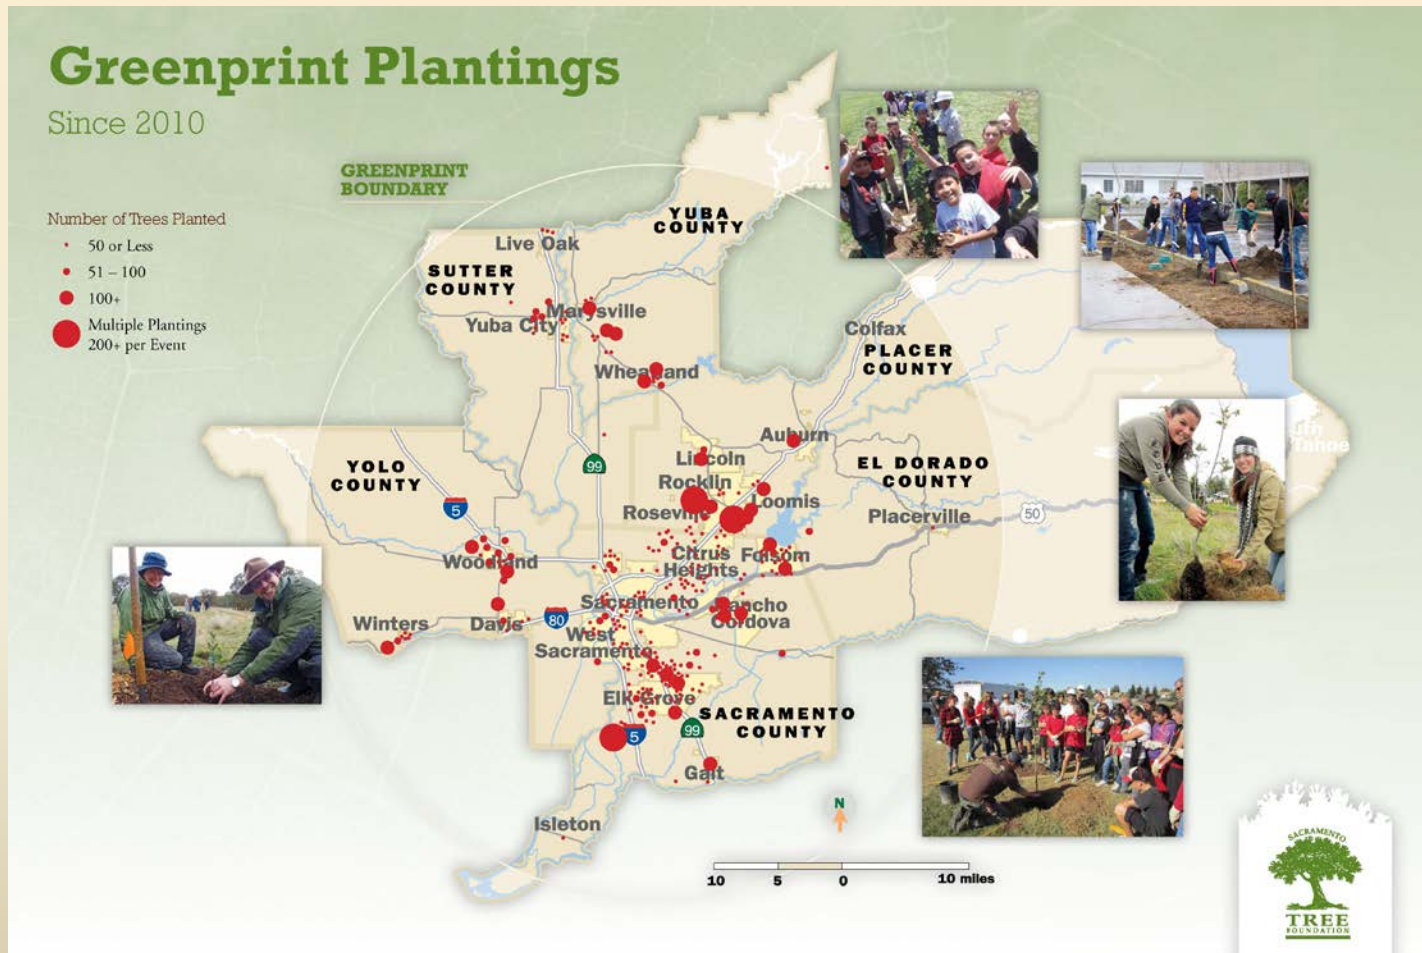

Health
Environment
Economy

Urban Forest

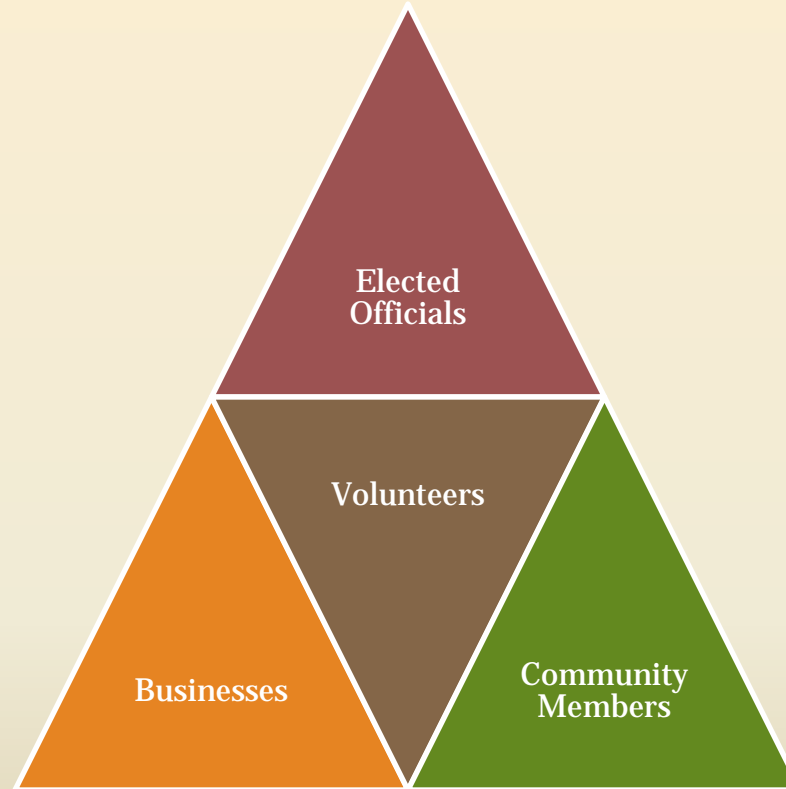

Education

Civic Engagement

Greenprint – Regional Initiative

Greenprint Framework

NATURE

- Full-service native tree mitigation services
- Value: educational and community involvement

Sacramento Shade

- Shade trees for utility customers
- Value: summer energy savings

Community Shade

- Trees for parks, schools, and public spaces
- Value: urban heat island effect, clean air

NeighborWoods

- Build community investments and activities
- Value: meeting local goals and priorities

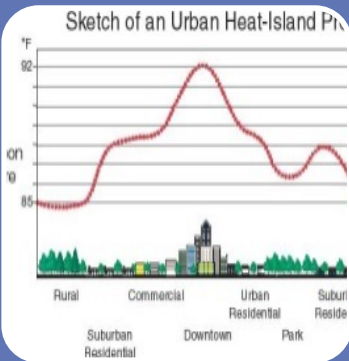

Seed to Seedling

- 3rd & 4th grade students with hands-on science and stewardship activities

Research and Innovation

- Air Quality
- Public Health

- Urban Heat Island Study
- SunSmart

How We Are Organized

Engagement & Outreach

- Networking
- Social Media
- Partnership Building
- Communications

Urban Ecology

- Service-Learning
- Habitat Restoration
- Land Enhancement
- Monitoring

Education & Training

- Expert Consultation
- Training and Instruction
- Translate science into language for every day people

Urban Wood Rescue

CalFire
Portable Saw
Mill Grant

City of Sacramento
MOA

West Coast
Arborist

Urban Wood Rescue

Milling and Storage
Yard

Private Sector
Partners

Community
Partners

Urban Wood Rescue

Urban Wood Rescue

Market Development

```
graph TD; A[Market Development] --> B[Partnership Intelligence]; B --> C[Competitive Pricing];
```

Partnership Intelligence

Competitive Pricing

Recycling Wood From Trees

Managing the Best Urban Forest

Thank You

