

Catch the shower warm-up water and use it to water your trees and other landscape plants. Young trees have varying needs but an average of 15 gallons a week should get the job done!